PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

I, United States Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Enforcement Officer Michael J. Prado, declare under penalty of perjury the following to be true and correct:

On July 11, 2008 at approximately 11:37 PM, Rafael SANDOVAL-Sandoval, AKA: Raul SANDOVAL-Sandoval, (Defendant) made application for admission into the United States from Mexico through the pedestrian entrance of the San Ysidro, California Port of Entry. Upon inspection before a United States Customs and Border Protection Officer, Defendant orally claimed to be a United States citizen. Defendant did not have any identification to provide to the CBP Officer. Defendant was subsequently referred to secondary inspection.

In secondary, Defendant was queried by 10-digit fingerprint and photograph comparison through the Automated Biometric Identification System (IDENT) and the Integrated Automated Fingerprint Identification System (IAFIS). IDENT and IAFIS returned a match to the query, linking Defendant to FBI and Immigration Service records which identified Defendant as a deported alien and citizen of Mexico.

Immigration Service record checks including the Deportable Alien Control System (DACS) indicate an Immigration Judge ordered Defendant deported to Mexico on or about September 26, 1995 and September 22, 1998. Defendant was last removed afoot on or about October 27, 2006 to Mexico via San Ysidro, California. Immigration Service records contain no evidence that Defendant has applied for or received permission from the Attorney General of the United States, or the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security to legally re-enter the United States.

Executed on this 12th day of July 2008 at 10:00 AM.

Michael J. Prado / CBP Enforcement Officer

On the basis of the facts presented in the Probable Cause Statement consisting of (1) page(s), I find probable cause to believe that the defendant named therein committed the offense on July 11, 2008 in violation of Title 8, United States Code, Section 1324.
